Hi Tracey,
I am back from a long journey in two continents. They are Europe and America. I went on this journey to see the World's 5 Greenest Countries. The journey was amazing. I came back with lots of unforgettable memories and photos. Of course, everything was not perfect during the journey. I had some problems, as well. For example, I broke my left foot finger while climbing a small mountain in Switzerland. It really hurt and no one was there to give me a hand. I felt desperate at that time. After some time in the forest, I saw a beautiful hut. There was a good couple in it. They gave me a bed and took care of me for two days. When my finger was OK, I kept walking in the green mountains. Anyway, you are going to see all the photos soon.
Big Hugs
John
